Disconnected Beyond Water and Grass: A Guide to the Capital of Mongolia
by M. A. Adams

Reviewed by: J. M. Zhang

Disconnected Beyond Water and Grass is a remarkable book that offers a unique perspective on the capital of Mongolia. The book is divided into three parts: Part I, The City of Ulaanbaatar; Part II, The Mei Ling, a historic building located in the heart of Ulaanbaatar; and Part III, The Heritage of Mongolia. Each part is richly illustrated with photos and maps, making it an ideal guide for anyone interested in exploring the city's rich culture and history.
